

FORMAT FOR COURSE CURRICULUM

Course Title: Environmental Studies & Law-II

L	T	P/S	SW/FW	No. of PSDA	TOTAL CREDIT UNITS
2	-	-	-	-	2

Credit Units: 2

Course Level: UG

Course Code: LAW 136

Course Objectives: This paper will discuss the basics of environmental studies and issues pertaining to the same. The students would learn about the basics of environmental laws and regime pertaining and a few major Supreme Court cases pertaining to environment in India.

Pre-requisites: The students should have basic awareness relating to environment and related laws.

Course Contents/Syllabus:

	Weightage (%)
Module I Environmental Laws in India	50%
Descriptors/Topics • The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 • The Wildlife Protection Act, 1972; • The Wildlife Protection (Amendment) Act, 2002 • The Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 • The Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Cess Act, 1977 • The Indian Forest Act, 1927 • The Forest (Conservation) Amendment Act, 2023 • Role of Constitutional Courts for Environmental Protection and their significant judgments
Module II Environmental Law in India and Remedies	50%

Descriptors/Topics • Constitutional Provisions of Environment [Relevant Provisions –14, 19 (1) (g), 21, 47, 48-A, 51-A(g)] • Role of Article 249, 252, 253 for enacting environment protection laws • Schedule VII • National Green Tribunal Act, 2010 • Criminal Remedies for Environmental Protection: Cr.P.C. & IPC • Civil Remedies for Environmental Protection • Role of Constitutional Courts for Environmental Protection and their significant judgments
---	--

Course Outcomes:

- To appraise the students about the importance of environment as an area of study
- To acquaint the students with the importance and impact of major present environmental issues
- To appraise the students with the basics of environmental law and current regime in India
- To expose students to the practical applicability of laws through the judgments of Supreme Court cases
- To appraise the students with practical applicability of laws and issues concerning Environment

Pedagogy for Course Delivery:

The course will be delivered by using lecture method and through different methods including case studies, court orders, judgments etc.

PSDA details-

NA

Lab/Practicals details, if applicable:

List of Experiments:

NA

Assessment/ Examination Scheme:

Theory L/T (%)	Lab/Practical/Studio (%)
100%	NA

Theory Assessment (L&T):

	Continuous Assessment/Internal Assessment (40%)						End Term Examination (60%)
Components (Drop down)	Class Test	Mid Term Test	Report Writing	Originality	Viva Voce	Attendance	End-term Examination
Linkage of PSDA with Internal Assessment Component, if any
Weightage (%)	10%	10%	5%	5%	5%	5%	60%

Lab/ Practical/ Studio Assessment:

	Continuous Assessment/Internal Assessment (____ %)					End Term Examination (____ %)
Components (Drop down)
Weightage (%)

Mapping Continuous Evaluation components/PSDA with COs

Bloom's Level >	Remembering	Understanding	Applying	Analysing	Evaluating
Course Outcomes	CO1 To appraise the students about the	CO2 To acquaint the students with the	CO3 To appraise the students with the	CO4 To expose students to the practical	CO5 To appraise the students with Assessment

type/PSDA	importance of environment as an area of study	importance and impact of major present environmental issues	basics of environmental law and current regime in India	applicability of laws through the judgments of Supreme Court cases	practical applicability of laws and issues concerning Environment
Class Test	✓	✓	✓	✓
Mid Term Test	✓	✓	✓	✓
Report Writing	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
Originality	✓	✓	✓	✓
Viva Voce	✓	✓	✓

Text Reading:

1. De Sadeleer, Nicolas, 2002, Environmental Principles: from Political Slogans to Legal Rules, Oxford University Press, Oxford.
2. Desai, Bharat H., 2004, Institutionalizing International Environmental Law, Transnational Publishers.
3. Kiss, Alexandre and Dinah Shelton, 2007, Guide to International Environmental Law, Martinus Nijhoff, Leiden.
4. Nanda K Sukanta, 2015, Environmental Law, Central Law Publication

References:

- All India Reporter
- Journal of Information and Telecommunication

Any other Study Material:

- NA