VERBATIM BETWEEN SOCIAL WORK TRAINEE AND COUNSELOR

Trainee: Good Evening Ma'am, I'm Tony

Counselor : Oh yes Tony Good Evening

Trainee : Ma'am are you free now?

Counselor: Yes Tony

Trainee: How are you Ma'am

Counselor: Ahh yea I'm good

Trainee: So ma'am i'll ask you some questions to you, it's about your counseling experiences.

Counselor: Oooh ok

Trainee: Shall we start

Counselor: Ye Sure

Trainee: Aah ma'am could you pls give a brief introduction about yourself and your counseling career.

Counselor : hhhhh ok myself Shelmy Assisi,
I have completed my master's in social work from Rajagiri College of Social sciences, Kalamassery and currently working as a counselor at Rajagiri Higher secondary school, Kalamassery. I am currently in my second year of working as a counselor.

Trainee: Oohk

Counselor: ahh Tony don't record the call, I actually really don't want to disclose my name, even though I have mentioned my school name and all. I haven't taken any permission to take part in this questionnaire so that's why!!!! u get it.

Trainee : hm ok Fine ma'am

Counselor: Yes please continue.

Trainee: Ham, next question is - Can I know what are the principles you are following while in your counseling?

Counselor: ahh i think.....

In my opinion, a counselor, is a person who upholds the principles of counselling, especially that of empathy, non-judgemental attitude ahh and Each client and each day is a new experience. As the years of experience in this field increases, the more you learn to become a counselor. It's about continuous learning and adaptation.

Trainee: ok

Counselor: AAA Tony if you can't remember what i say, please send me the questions at last the call, i will type it and send to you.

Trainee: ok thank you ma'am

Counselor: Ye Fine

Trainee: Ma'am Next is, What are the skills you are following in your counseling.

Counselor: hummm,The skills that I use include active listening, empathy, observation, understanding verbal and non- verbal communication of the clients etc.

Trainee: Ok next is, what are the techniques you are following in your counseling?

Counselor: The technique that I use includes individual counseling, group counseling, validation, parent-teacher collaboration etc.

Trainee: Ma'am can u please share any case study if it's okay

Counselor: School setting - sorry cases can't be shared.

Trainee: OK ma'am, next ! What are the challenges you are facing in your counseling career.

Counselor:The challenges including the attitude of clients and their family towards counselling, the uncooperative clients etc. Coming from a social work background, the knowledge about counselling is very limited, thus I am updating myself each day, improving and learning more in this field.

Trainee: ooh ok, So next is ; Which field you are practicing in your counseling and also What is the process of counseling you are following in your counseling

Counselor: The process includes, interaction with the class teacher of the client, to know a bit more about the client. Then building a rapport with the client, in the session, carried on with counselling session, and if required further help, the client will be given refferal.

Trainee: aam last one, How do you balance your life with this career?

Counselor: hum being in school counseling field, you also become a teacher who gets to do all sorts of teacher duties including teaching duty, organizing duties and the job role goes on. The overall job can be very hectic, in such situations being around your loved ones, especially family and friends, going out for walks, using time for self, including self care. etc. has helped me a lot.

Trainee: ok ma'am so thank you so much for giving your valuable times for me.

Counselor : You're welcome, ah tony So if it's not mandatory, I humble request you to take down my name and school name. If possible.

Trainee: ok ma'am Thank you
