

SAI MATEKAR

saimatekar.123@gmail.com

SUMMARY

I am passionate about Literature, (in all shapes and forms) and how it influences the world, within and without. I am interested in studying the intersection of caste, class and education in India. I wish to pursue Public Policy in the future.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Hyderabad Literary Festival

Jan 2024

- I volunteered under the Literature, Poetry and Indigenous and Endangered Languages Stream. I was able to foster my interest in the said subject by interacting with the authors and researchers present there. By volunteering for the festival I was also able to bring my favourite authors to a larger audience.
- I researched the authors and moderators for the event and introduced them to the audience.
- I developed strong communication skills to facilitate between the organisers, presenters and the audience.
- I demonstrated interpersonal abilities by working collaboratively with other volunteers on various projects.

Indian Express

May 2024- June 2024

- A journalistic intern.
- I worked on various articles mainly focusing on education and culture in Pune.
- I helped senior reporters in research, interviews and field work.

Delhi University

January 2025 - Present

- I am working as a teaching assistant under professor Anubha Yadav
- I assist her in admin, research and academic work.
- I make lesson plans.
- I am exposed to the world of Indian academia at a deeper and richer level.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts (Hons.) in English

November 2022- March 2026

English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad
CGPA - 9.4/10

Along with a major in English Literature I have also been exposed to Linguistics and English Language teaching. I have taken introductory courses in Psychology, Philosophy, Cultural Studies, and Writing for Media. My degree has made my academic profile all rounded in the field of humanities.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Languages - Native Marathi, Fluent English, Fluent Hindi, Beginner French
- I possess strong interpersonal, organizational, and communication skills that are beneficial for coordinating events, and working with diverse populations. I possess strong writing skills that are beneficial in writing press releases and articles. I believe in community-driven growth and leadership