Objective

A dedicated and research-driven professional with a Master's in Public Administration, committed to driving positive social change through policy research, advocacy, and community engagement. Passionate about child rights, education, and social justice, I aim to contribute to evidence-based policy recommendations that empower children and marginalized communities. My expertise in research, content creation, and stakeholder collaboration positions me to support CRY's mission of ensuring every child has access to a safe, healthy, and empowering environment.

Key Skills

- Policy Research & Advocacy – Expertise in analyzing policies on education, child protection, governance, and social development to support data-driven decision-making.
 - Content Creation & Communication – Strong writing and editing skills for developing reports, policy briefs, impact assessments, and advocacy materials.
 - Community Engagement & Program Support – Experience in grassroots initiatives, fundraising, and awareness campaigns to drive social impact.
 - Social Media & Digital Outreach – Managing content to raise awareness, engage stakeholders, and drive advocacy efforts.
 - Technical Proficiency – Skilled in Microsoft Office, Canva, Google Workspace, research tools, and graphic design to support policy and outreach initiatives.
