

Aryama Ranjan

8004255253 • 24jgls-aranjan@jgu.edu.in • Prayagraj, India 211003

Summary	Skilled in managing and conducting complex research projects across diverse scientific disciplines. Possess strong analytical abilities, adept at data collection, analysis, and interpretation, to drive project objectives. Demonstrated capacity for critical thinking and problem-solving to advance scientific understanding and application. Contributed to significant improvements in research methodology and efficiency in previous roles, enhancing overall project outcomes.
Skills	• Legal research • Policy writing • Creative writing	• Research paper writing • Report writing • Verbal and written communication
Experience	12/2024 - 12/2024 Research Intern, Empowering Minds, Ghaziabad, India • As a Research Intern at an NGO focused on advocating for the rights of children and women, my role involved conducting in-depth research on relevant legal frameworks, policies, and issues affecting women and children. • I assisted in analyzing national data, compiling case studies, and gathering data to support the NGO's advocacy efforts. My responsibilities included reviewing legislative proposals, preparing reports, and summarizing research findings to help inform the organization's campaigns and legal strategies. • Additionally, I supported the team by helping organize workshops, tracking legal developments, and ensuring that research aligns with the NGO's mission to protect and empower vulnerable populations. 08/2024 - Current Volunteer, Rotract Club OP Jindal Global University, Sonipat, India • Helped with prep, set up, and breakdown of community and public events. • Offered support and assistance to community members. • Assisted with fundraising efforts, including event planning and donor outreach. 08/2024 - Current Researcher, Self, Sonipat, India • Legal Research and Writing: Provided legal analysis on various topics, including legislative reforms, constitutional law, and international law, through academic papers, policy briefs, and reports. • Applied rigorous methodologies to analyze the impact of policies, proposing recommendations for improvements in governance and public administration. • Leveraged writing skills to produce creative content that simplifies complex legal and policy concepts for diverse audiences, including blogs, social media posts, and multimedia pieces.
Education And Training	Expected in 08/2029 B.A. L.L.B(hons.) Jindal Global Law School, Sonipat, India	