About Me

As a psychology student, I aspire to achieve a comprehensive understanding of the human mind, behaviour and emotions. I strive to be able to approach problems from multiple perspectives while maintaining a positive outlook. I look forward to creating an inclusive space and to establish a safe and trustworthy connections with clients. My curriculum so far has instilled in me a sense of curiosity and fascination with the human mind. My areas of interest include Cognition, Indian psychology, Sports psychology, Social psychology, and Neuropsychology.
