Bachelor's in Rural Studies – Visva-Bharati University (Expected Graduation: June 2025)

The Bachelor's degree in Rural Studies from Visva-Bharati University has provided me with a comprehensive understanding of rural development, agricultural practices, community welfare, and sustainability. The program emphasizes both theoretical knowledge and practical approaches to addressing the challenges faced by rural communities. Through my coursework, research projects, and fieldwork, I have gained valuable insights into social, economic, and environmental issues, and developed the skills needed to work in diverse sectors aimed at improving rural livelihoods. My studies have also nurtured my ability to think critically, work collaboratively, and engage with communities to foster positive change.
