CERTIFICATIONS, DIPLOMAS AND LICENSES

- Advanced Certificate in Constitutional Law,
The Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies (ICPS), New Delhi

This course provided a comprehensive understanding of the Indian Constitution, its evolution, and key provisions. It covered fundamental rights, duties, directive principles, and the functioning of the legislature, executive, and judiciary. The program also explored federalism, union-state relations, alternative dispute resolution mechanisms, local governance, and constitutional provisions related to trade and commerce, including GST. By studying constitutional law in depth, I gained valuable insights into the legal framework governing India, strengthening my analytical and policymaking skills for governance and public administration.

- Advanced Certificate in Parliamentary Institutions and Procedures,
The Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies (ICPS), New Delhi

This course provided me with an in-depth understanding of the parliamentary system in India, covering its evolution, composition, and functioning. It equipped me with insights into legislative procedures, law-making, financial business, parliamentary committees, and the role of presiding officers. Additionally, the course explored the tools available to MPs for executive oversight, parliamentary privileges, subordinate legislation, and election systems. Through this program, I gained valuable knowledge on parliamentary governance, enabling me to engage effectively in policy discussions and legislative processes.

- Diploma in Government and Governance Studies
Indian Institute of Governance and Leadership (IIGL) & Shastri Institute of Governance and Leadership (SIGL), New Delhi

This diploma has significantly enhanced my understanding of governance, public policy, and administrative frameworks. It provided me with a multidisciplinary perspective, integrating law, public administration, regulatory practices, and big data analytics, which are crucial for policy analysis and decision-making. The program's flexibility allowed me to balance my UPSC preparation and academic pursuits while gaining practical insights from seasoned diplomats and bureaucrats. It has sharpened my research, analytical, and leadership skills, reinforcing my ability to critically engage with governance challenges and contribute effectively to policy reforms and public administration.

- Cert Prep: Word Associate - Microsoft Office Specialist for Office 2019
LinkedIn Learning

This course provided comprehensive training in Microsoft Word 2019 and Office 365, covering key areas such as document management, formatting, tables and lists, references, graphics, and collaboration tools. It enhanced my proficiency in navigating documents, inserting headers and footers, managing citations and bibliographies, and utilizing advanced editing features like change tracking and comments. The program also included hands-on practice with sample files and a full-length practice exam, equipping me with the skills necessary to excel in the MOS Word Associate certification exam.
