PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a BBA Media Management student at Symbiosis Centre for Media and Communication in Pune, with a deep passion for media, storytelling, and impact-driven communication.

My professional journey includes roles in business development at Acelot Innovation and social media marketing with High School Moms, where I developed skills in content creation, customer engagement, and sales outreach. These experiences have taught me the power of effective storytelling to captivate audiences and drive meaningful results.

In addition to my studies, I'm actively involved in music and theatre, which fuel my creativity and help me connect with diverse audiences. My education at Manipal Academy of Higher Education and Delhi Public School, combined with volunteering efforts focused on education and cancer awareness, have strengthened my commitment to initiatives that inspire and uplift.

Excited to connect with professionals and explore opportunities in media, marketing, and beyond!

EXPERIENCE

Social Media Intern

High School Moms / India, Gurgaon

2021 - 2021

I contributed to the Social Media team, focusing on expanding their reach to potential customers and elevating the quality of their digital content across various platforms. During this period, I played an integral role in strategizing and creating engaging posts, analyzing audience engagement, and implementing data-driven improvements to optimize performance. My efforts not only increased visibility but also strengthened the brand's online presence by delivering tailored content that resonated with the target audience. From designing visually appealing graphics to crafting compelling captions, I ensured that each piece of content aligned with the brand's voice and objectives, driving meaningful engagement.

Business Development Intern

Acelot Innovation Pvt Ltd / India, Gurgaon

2022 - 2022

I actively worked to boost sales by collaborating with the social media team to attract potential customers through platforms like Instagram and Facebook. My efforts included developing targeted marketing strategies, creating engaging videos, and designing impactful posters to enhance brand visibility. By leveraging creative content and optimizing outreach, I successfully contributed to expanding the company's customer base. These initiatives collectively drove increased engagement, improved marketing effectiveness, and ultimately led to a notable growth in the company's business.

As the Cultural Representative for FY'23, I played a pivotal role in shaping and managing the cultural landscape of the college. I led the coordination and execution of multiple flagship events, ensuring their success by collaborating with faculty, students, and external stakeholders. From conceptualizing event themes to organizing performances, I facilitated seamless communication among teams and ensured every detail reflected the college's vibrant cultural identity.

I actively engaged in budgeting, sponsorship acquisition, and promotional campaigns to maximize event outreach. Additionally, I fostered participation across diverse clubs, including Music, Dance, Theatre, and Debate, and supported their initiatives with tailored guidance and resources.

My contributions also extended to mentoring juniors in film-making, scriptwriting, and event management, ensuring the legacy of a thriving cultural ecosystem. By combining strategic planning, creativity, and hands-on leadership, I significantly elevated the college's cultural presence and enriched the campus experience for all.
