About

I am a First year Law student at Llyod School of Law, which is affiliated to Chaudhary Charan Singh University. I have my keen interest in Law and research, and I am forward looking towards taking up challenges in an internship to help grow myself and develop some new skills and also learn under the guidance of the experts of that respective fields. I would love to work in a reputed organization/firm/research centre / NGOs where I would love to contribute in achieving the objectives of the institution while enhancing my learnings as well and adding to my knowledge and experience.
