A B O U T M E

Hello! I'm a student who's absolutely fascinated by the psyche and how it connects to our society. While primarily exploring career paths in industrial psychology, human resources, and related fields, I am equally drawn to cyberpsychology, criminal psychology, sociology, and criminology. I love breaking down films, media, and societal trends and finding meaning in the details. Art is also a huge part of who I am, that allows me to express and feed my creativity. I am actively looking into learning corporate skills, marketing and much more! At this stage, I am growing, learning, and figuring out how to make an impact in this world.
