Simarna Kaur Chohan

I am a creative mind person who is always open to learning and putting my knowledge into practical life. I am a combination of logic as well as creativity as both compliment each other. Illustration and art interest me a lot and I believe in patience and dedicating my heart to my work. My love for Reading ,Researching and serving is beyond boundaries. I believe in the art of empathy which is the actual route towards knowledge. My experiences define me as a multitasker and gaining knowledge of each and every field.

Experience
