- (CPCA)Research program Kishinchand Chellaram College October 2022- September 2023
Certificate Program For Commerce and Arts (CPCA) Throughout the year-long research program, I embarked on a transformative journey into the realm of academic inquiry. Lectures and interactive sessions provided a roadmap for understanding research methodology, from formulating questions to analyzing data. Writing my own research paper was the pinnacle of this experience, where theory seamlessly merged with practice. It was both challenging and immensely rewarding, improving my critical thinking and analytical skills.

- (HONORS PROGRAM)Kishinchand Chellaram College (Honors program) 2021-2024 commenced my honors program concurrently with Bachelor of Arts (BA) studies, which the college itself administers. The program spans three years and encompasses two principal subjects: Accounts and Law. Through an online platform, students engage in a comprehensive curriculum that integrates examinations and projects to ensure a holistic learning experience. This structured approach allows me to delve deeply into both theoretical concepts and practical applications within the realms of accounting and legal studies. The program is currently on its 5 semester .And I successful passed my last sem with a 10GPA 40 credit points and passes the previous semesters with a o grade
- Kishinchand Chellaram College(Department Of Sociology)in Asscociation with TKNY Group Of advocates
CCLJR (certificate Course In Law Justice And Rights The course offered a January 2023- March 2023 comprehensive exploration of legal rights, encompassing significant legislation such as the Special Marriage Act and Criminal Act, among others. Renowned lawyers and advocates conducted the lectures, enriching our understanding with their expertise and insights. Furthermore, the program included immersive field visits to courts and non-governmental organizations (NGOs), facilitating direct interactions with judges. These experiences provided invaluable practical insights into the legal system, enhancing our learning journey beyond the confines of traditional classroom settings.
