PROFILE

A curious creator at heart and a food enthusiast by passion, I'm a Nutrition and Dietetics graduate who thrives on turning ideas into action. Whether it's designing vibrant visuals for a bake sale, launching a 70+ item menu at a restaurant, or leading a fundraiser that beat its own goals — I love bringing people, purpose, and creativity together. With experience across event management, food entrepreneurship, and graphic design, I'm driven by stories, strategy, and a sprinkle of chaos (the good kind). Always learning, always building — one delicious project at a time.
