Internship experiences

- Legal intern at iProbono. Under the team of iProbono, I assisted with the development of a legal toolkit on reproductive rights, researched upon various child protection laws and topics of disability rights and issues affecting various vulnerable communities. I was engaged in the drafting of multiple petitions that were put before the Juvenile Justice Board. (October 2024)
- Legal intern at Bombay High Court under Senior Advocate Mihir Desai. During my tenure there, I assisted with legal research on matters pertaining to human rights, service, criminal and constitutional law. I worked closely with Mr. Desai on drafting anticipatory bail applications, quashing petitions and special leave petitions. I got to learn the inner workings of human rights law litigation and the importance of legal aid and activism. (June 2024)
- Legal intern at Calcutta High Court under the Chambers of Jhuma Sen. During my tenure there, I assisted with legal research on matters pertaining to matrimonial, criminal and constitutional law. Under her guidance, I drafted opinion pieces on judicial independence, marriage equality and protection of vulnerable witnesses. The experience exposed me to the nuances of gender justice and critical legal studies.

(May 2023)

- Legal intern at Orissa High Court under the office of Advocate General Ashok Parija. Under his guidance, I learnt how to draft and settle writ applications and legal opinions. The month-long experience helped me learn the skill of legal research particularly in fields of mining law, arbitration, service law and company law. (May 2022)
