

Mishty Sharma

Motivated and Empathetic B.A. Economics Student
O.P. Jindal Global University | Sonipat, Haryana

Profile

I am a driven and compassionate Economics student at O.P. Jindal Global University with a strong passion for development work and community-based solutions. Over the past six years, I have gained significant volunteer experience through Mercy League, contributing to a range of community service initiatives. Additionally, I have honed my research skills at Catalyst, JGU's student consulting society, assisting in projects that support the social impact and development sectors. I am currently seeking an internship in the non-profit sector to further my commitment to social causes and grassroots initiatives.
