EXPERIENCE

I have been working independently as a freelance artist and calligrapher since 2018 creating personalized gifting products, custom calligraphy pieces, and digital designs. Through my Instagram page (@calligraphically_), I've managed orders, conducted workshops, communicated with clients, and built a small but engaged creative community. I have also designed posters and visual content for school events, including cultural programs and awareness campaigns. Notably, I contributed to period awareness drives by creating informative posters and helping with on-ground coordination and outreach efforts. These experiences have allowed me to develop strong skills in visual storytelling, team collaboration, communication, and empathy—qualities I aim to bring to all creative and socially-driven projects.
