

LAVANYA SHEKHAWAT

Tilak Nagar, Jaipur road, Bikaner , Raj | shekhawat2273@gmail.com | +917976958030

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Motivated and detail-oriented law student with a strong foundation in constitutional, criminal, and civil law. Skilled in legal research, drafting, and analysis. Seeking opportunities that combine rigorous legal analysis with meaningful societal impact.

EDUCATION

YEAR	DEGREE	INSTITUTION	PERCENTAGE
2021	B A LLB (Hons)	Amity Law School , Noida	Pursuing
2021	CLASS XII (CBSE)	Gurukul BL Mohta Institute,Bikaner	84.4%
2019	CLASS X (CBSE)	Delhi Public School , Bikaner	93.4%

INTERNSHIPS

The Amikus Qriae / Organization

January'22

- Drafted 4+ legal documents and contributed to legal research.
- Supported the organization of legal workshops and meetings, ensuring smooth execution.
- Actively served as a member of the Student Partner Program, enhancing outreach and engagement.

Adv Naveen Raheja / DLR Partners

June - July'23

- Attended 15+ courtroom hearings across civil and criminal matters. to observe trial procedures and arguments in the Delhi district courts.
- Assisted in legal research, case law compilation, and drafting of pleadings, applications, and briefs. Drafted 8+ case briefs and legal notes. Researched on cases related to various statutes such as The Foreign (Contribution) Regulation Act, 2010.
- Maintained case files, coordinated with clients, and supported day-to-day litigation tasks.

Adv. Rajesh Panwar / Additional Adv. General

May'25

- Observed 10+ court proceedings and assisted in case preparation, gaining practical exposure to civil, criminal, and writ matters in the Rajasthan High Court.
- Conducted legal research on state-specific laws, such as the Rajasthan Essential Services Maintenance Act, 1970 , supporting case analysis and argument development.
- Drafted 10+ case briefs, legal notes, and maintained case files under the supervision of senior advocates, enhancing legal writing and procedural knowledge.

PUBLICATIONS

- Author of the chapter "Unravelling Gender Constraints in Work-Life Realm" in a book titled Unveiling Gender Justice: Gender Rights and Social Change in India. Co-author of the chapter
- "Echoes of Despair: Uncovering Human Rights Challenges Faced by Refugees in Conflict Zones" in a book titled In Pursuit of Freedom and Justice: Human Rights in Theory and Practice. Authored articles titled "PUCL v. Union of India – A Case That Shaped Democracy" and "Freedom of Speech vs. Contempt of Court – A Dig into the Prashant Bhushan Case", published in Elysian, the official newsletter of Amity Law School, Noida.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Worked in the media cell for Girl Up Aarohi, a UN Foundation initiative, focusing on gender equality and youth engagement. Designed and scheduled 7+ posts, successfully increasing social media engagement by 25% over 6 months, and developed campaigns to increase outreach and awareness. Contributed to Elysian, the official legal magazine of my university, as a
- member of the legal cell by making legal blogs/newsletters on contemporary legal issues. Focused on clear, research-based content aimed at engaging readers and promoting legal awareness. Served as a Media Cell member of the ADR Society, where I designed promotional
- content for 10+ mediation and arbitration events. Helped raise overall page followers by 1000+ in 4 months. Attended a Training Programme on Human Rights organized by Amity Law
- School in collaboration with the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), gaining foundational knowledge on human rights principles, legal frameworks, and their practical implementation in India Worked as a member of the Research and Development Committee of the Amity Legal Aid and Literacy Society, playing an active role in planning and managing 5+
- legal awareness events Conducted research on key legal and social issues