I'm a motivated and curious individual who thrives on learning and leading. Have already worked with foundations like Muskurahat Foundation and Taare Zameen Foundation as an intern who assisted the project management and the fundraiser teams. I had the chance to grow both personally and professionally, strengthening my critical thinking and leadership skills. As a national-level chess player, I've developed a deep sense of strategy, patience, and mental resilience. I'm passionate about building a career in law, driven by a mindset that's always aiming higher. I enjoy taking initiative, finding solutions, and working with purpose—especially when it means making a meaningful impact. Interests include table tennis, chess, reading books.
