

ARMAAN BAMZAI

Phone: (240)-703-0811. Email: ab4731@columbia.edu

EDUCATION

Columbia University, New York City, NY. Graduation Year: May 2025.

- John Jay Scholar (awarded to ~0.5% of Columbia students)
- Concentration & Major: Public Health & English. Dean's List.

EXPERIENCE

Clinton Health Access Initiative, New York — Global Markets Intern

SEPTEMBER 2024- DECEMBER 2024

- Drafted cost analyses and funding allocation for maternal Multiple Micronutrient Supplement procurement in developing countries. Liaised with local partners.
- Collaborated with Senior Manager & Associates of the Global Markets Team.
- Reviewed, researched for and edited applications to the IMF for child and maternal RUTF subsidization in Ghana and other target regions.

Columbia Justice Lab, New York — Program Assistant

APRIL 2022- APRIL 2024

- Planned events and drafted communications about justice reform, as well as emerging news related to probation/parole in the United States.
- Worked with a diverse team to engage the Lab's advisory network of Executives Transforming Probation and Parole (EXiT) in panels, virtual chats and amicus briefs.
- Researched US justice advancement and processes, consistently centering the lived experiences of marginalized justice-involved people (BIPOC, LGBTQ+ and women).

Columbia Journal of Asia, New York — Editor-in-Chief, Lead Creative Editor

OCTOBER 2021- APRIL 2024

- Curated two-issue series of academic journal about Asia and Asian Studies, loosely themed around genealogies of the Global South.
- Edited and engaged with narrative historical submissions, deepening my understanding of colonial legacies that shape contemporary health disparities.

Quarto Magazine (Columbia University), New York — Editor-in-Chief, Copy Editor

OCTOBER 2021- MAY 2025

- Led a diverse team of 30 editors in two publication cycles and planned collaborative campus events to foster literary dialogue and platform student artists and activists.
- Established Quarto's Creatives of Color Week, encouraging BIPOC writers and artists to share work and meaningfully highlighting their voices.

Youth for Unity and Voluntary Action, Mumbai, India — Communications Intern

MAY-JULY 2022

- Helped YUVA document the stories of Mumbai's lower-income neighborhoods and create digital content about life in Mumbai's largest slums. Wrote semi-legal reports for use in human rights disputes.

SKILLS & INTERESTS

- Maternal and Child Health
- Colonial Medical History
- Goal-oriented
- Exceptional Writing Skills
- Communication
- Organization
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
- Attention to Detail
- Team Collaboration

AWARDS

Richmond B. Williams

Fellowship for Research on Colonial Racial-Scientific Narratives at the National Archives of India

RESEARCH COURSEWORK

"The growing impact of postpartum depression (PPD) on working mothers during the COVID-19 pandemic in the USA (2020-21)"

"Conquering Infiltration, Contamination and Contagion: British Women's Colonial Medical Subjectivity in 1830s-1930s India"

LANGUAGES

English (native)

Hindi (native)

Kashmiri (native)

German (fluent)

French (elementary)