

Azeraum Raghuvanshi

Phone: 8319738837

Email: Azeraumraghuwanshi2005@gmail.com

Location: Shivpuri, Madhya Pradesh

Academic Background

Happy Days School, Shivpuri

Arts Stream – Class 12 Completed (2023)

Subjects: Political Science, History, English

Currently : Appearing for undergraduate law admissions

Objective

Motivated and socially-driven student aspiring to pursue a career in law, with a deep interest in children's rights, education equity, and access to justice. Seeking an opportunity at CRY to contribute meaningfully through awareness campaigns, online outreach, and advocacy-oriented volunteering, while learning from experienced mentors.

Skills

- Strong communication and public speaking
- Empathy and emotional intelligence
- Basic research and documentation
- Content writing and editing
- Social media outreach (Instagram, Canva basics)
- Event participation & team coordination

Relevant Experience & Activities

Youth Leadership Program – National Finalist

- Eco-brick based project for community development
- Led awareness campaigns on sustainability
- Collaborated with peers across regions
- Gained experience in teamwork, problem-solving, and presentation

Debating and Public Speaking

- Participated in interschool debate and speech competitions
- Comfortable with delivering awareness talks and persuasive messages

Social Giving Initiative – Community Involvement

- On my father's birthday, organized a cricket kit donation drive for children supported by a local

NGO

- Interacted with the children to understand their interests and challenges
- Experience deepened my motivation to support underprivileged children

Hobbies and Interests

- Reading novels on social themes and human rights
- Singing and community events
- Traveling and observing diverse social environments

Why CRY?

I am passionate about contributing to causes that protect and uplift underprivileged children. Working with CRY will help me begin my law journey rooted in values like justice, dignity, and equality. I'm eager to learn, adapt, and make a small difference through awareness initiatives and remote engagement.