Learning Objective

A passionate and socially driven law student actively seeking an internship opportunity at a reputed NGO to contribute meaningfully to society while developing core legal and advocacy skills. Experienced in grassroots volunteering, community engagement, and team coordination, with a strong interest in social justice and public welfare. With past experiences working with NGOs such as the Robinhood Army and Muskurahat Foundation, I look forward to contributing to initiatives that support child rights, education, and social justice, while gaining practical exposure in the development sector.
