

Career Objective

A first-year law student dedicated to knowing more about the legal realm through research projects and hand-on experiences in the field in order to make a difference. Eager to contribute to Women's Rights (particularly reproductive rights and societal perceptions regarding menstruation) and the law surrounding AI and Privacy.

Education

Jindal Global Law School, BA LLB (Hons.)

August 2024 - May 2029

Oakridge International School, Newton Campus (Hyderabad)

2011-2024

- Courses opted in IBDP:
 - Standard Level: Biology, Math AI, Spanish ab initio
 - Higher Level: History, Psychology, Language and Literature
 - Received all three core points in IBDP
 - Wrote a 4000 words History extended-essay with the research question "To what extent did Hanna Reitsch challenge the state-sponsored Nazi gender paradigm as an experimental test pilot in the Third Reich?"
-

Internships:

- Legal Intern at Nirmaan Organization (NGO):
December 2024-January 2025
Reviewed and amended grant-proposals which were in the form of MOUs. In addition, evaluated and simplified all CSR-related laws to create an accessible brief for the NGO's corporate partners.
-

Skills

- Creative Writing
 - Academic Writing and Research
 - Contract Drafting and Negotiation (Lawctopus Certification)
-

Extracurricular Activities

- The Akhila Project: Volunteered to teach Math to primary school children from underprivileged backgrounds (2022-23)
 - Key roles in yearly theatre productions in school and university:
 - Including Lady Macbeth in IBDP's play of 'Macbeth', 'Murder at Malabar Hill' in the Spring Semester of year-1.
 - Trinity College London Examinations:
 - Electronic Keyboard (up till Grade 7 out of 8)
 - Acting (duo and group productions)
 - Bharatanatyam Certification (ABGMVM examinations up till Visharad Pratham)
 - Member of JGU Music Society
-

Achievements

- Continual Honour Roll and Principal Award Recipient throughout Secondary School
- Grade A received for TOK Essay (IBDP)
- 'Outstanding Delegate' Award in OakJMUN-2019
- 'High Commendation' Journalist Award for OakPMUN-2023