

GRACE HOINUNMAWI HAOKIP

+91 7002907602

gracehhaokip@gmail.com

Address: Guwahati, Assam

EDUCATION

Bachelor of English Literature

St. Stephen's College,
University of Delhi

2023-present

Primary to Higher secondary education

St. Francis De Sales Higher
Secondary School,
Guwahati, Assam

2011 - 2023

SKILLS

- Technical Skills: Canva, MS Office, Basic IT Tools
- Creative Skills: Creative Writing, Proofreading, Editing, Article Design, Research
- Soft Skills: Presentation, Leadership, Event Organization, Communication

LANGUAGE

- English
- Hindi
- Assamese
- Thadou-Kuki
- Tamil (Basic)

PROFILE

A second-year English Literature student at St. Stephen's College, with a passion for writing, research, and community engagement through literature. Experienced in editorial roles, event organization, and published works across various platforms. Continuously honing skills in creative writing, article design, and leadership, with a background that combines fluency in multiple languages and adaptability to dynamic environments. Committed to personal growth, demonstrated through academic achievements and active participation in extracurricular activities.

EXPERIENCE AND CONTRIBUTIONS

The St. Stephen's Northeast Society

Assistant Literary Head

2024- present

- Organize and manage literary events, contribute to society publications.

Editorial & Design Team Member – Orchid, Annual Journal of Northeast Society

2023-2024

- Assisted in content editing, proofreading, and designing

PUBLISHED WORKS

- "Navigating Dementia's Silhouette – Reflections on The Glass Essay by Anne Carson" – Published in Postscript, Journal of English Literary Society, Issue VIII
- "Preserving Food Security: Kuki Tradition" – Published in The Hills are Alive, Blog of Northeast Society
- "Galngam and Aonglempla: Core of Oral Tradition" (Co-authored with Temjenrenla Jamir) Based on Northeast Folklore, Orchid Journal (Forthcoming)

RESEARCH & INTERVIEWS:

- Conducted and transcribed an interview as a member of Research team of Northeast society, with the founders of Hunishe, the first Naga social media platform, for Orchid Journal (Forthcoming).

LEADERSHIP & EXTRACURRICULARS

Organizing Committee Member – St. Stephen's MUN, Planning Forum

- Contributed to event planning, publicity, and participation in the 3-day MUN event.

Organizing Committee Member – Annual Production of Shakespeare Society: The Tempest

- Assisted with event organization, management, and logistics.