PURSUING BACHELOR'S IN PSYCHOLOGY HONOURS

ABOUT

I'm an emotionally driven and practical psychology student with a sharp sense of purpose and a deep desire to help others, especially those navigating grief, trauma, or mental health struggles. I'm straightforward, observant, and committed to making a real impact, whether it's through listening, problem-solving, or just showing up when it matters. I work best in teams where authenticity and compassion are valued. With strong interpersonal skills, a solid work ethic, and a calm head under pressure, I bring both heart and clarity to whatever I take on.
