

Palak Sharma

Contact

 palaka.sharma1503@gmail.com

 +91 981148400

 New Delhi, India

Profile Summary

BA Political Science Honours student with strong research, communication and organizational skills. Interested in public policy, international relations and cultural affairs. Eager to gain practical experience in administrative, public policy, initiatives that support heritage preservation and developmental initiatives.

Academic Details

- Bachelor of Arts in Political Science Honours
Mata Sundri College for Women
(2023- Present)
- Intermediate
CBSE
(2022- 2023)
- High School
CBSE
(2020-2021)

Skills

Research and analysis
Communication
Content Development
Event coordination
Teamwork
Time Management
Community outreach
Data Proficiency (Familiar with MS Office Suite , Google workspace and Canava)

Experience

Global Peace Foundation	July 2024 - October 2024
Intern - Period Awareness Drive (PAD)
- Conducted field surveys and community engagement sessions in marginalized areas to promote menstrual hygiene awareness. - Researched and compiled data on 50+ NGOs and menstrual product companies across Delhi and Agra for potential collaboration. - Designed educational materials (booklets, brochures, charts) in English and Hindi using Canva, improving health communication. - Co-created workshop content including a 3D model of the female reproductive system and a street play on menstrual health. - Drafted outreach emails and assisted with social media content for the PAD project. - Volunteered in organizing the “International Youth Day” event: handled logistics, guest management, and ID & feedback form creation. - Gained proficiency in qualitative research, Excel data organization, content creation, and event coordination.

Certification and Achievement

- Certificate of participation, volunteered at the 16th edition of Bookaro Children’s Literature Festival in Delhi, 2024
- Certificate of participation in Poster Making Competition on the theme ‘Harmony in Diversity, Peace in Unity’ organised by GPF India on the occasion of ‘World Interfaith Harmony Week’ on February 6,2025.