CAREER OBJECTIVE

I am a motivated and curious fresher. I have always had a willingness to pursue entrepreneurship, although I adhere to the idea; yet, I am aware that my raw passion and curiosity need to be channeled in a meaningful manner to refine my skills. I have always had a strong inclination towards setups that will help me learn new skills and refine the existing ones through execution. I am eager to contribute across various functions and grow with a team that values ownership, creativity, and problem-solving.
