I am a first-year BA LL.B. student at ILS Law College, Pune, with a strong interest in the legal field and a commitment to building a solid foundation in law. I am eager to explore various branches of the legal system, develop critical thinking skills, and gain practical experience through internships, research, and hands-on learning opportunities.

I look forward to enhancing my skills in legal research, writing, and advocacy, while learning from experienced professionals who can guide and inspire my growth within the legal profession.
