

BHOOMI DHAWLE

ABOUT ME

I am Bhoomi Dhawle, a second-year B.A. LL.B. student at DMHSL with a focused interest in criminal law, legal aid, criminology and sociology. I am committed to the pursuit of justice and possess a solid foundation in the socio-legal dimensions of crime and society. My passion lies in understanding the root causes of criminal behavior and addressing systemic issues through legal aid and public service. With strong active listening skills, empathy and discretion, I am well-suited for client interaction, legal counseling, and community outreach. I thrive in collaborative environments and am driven to enhance my legal acumen through practical exposure and academic rigor, with a long-term aspiration to specialize in criminal law.
