

Professional Summary

Mission-driven Chartered Accountant with a passion for impact, equipped with extensive professional experience in finance, taxation, and core compliance alongside hands-on exposure in NGO and community roles. Recognized for integrity, accountability, and a dedication to lifelong learning, I bring leadership, mentorship, and operational acumen to drive meaningful social change. I have guided teams in delivering financial literacy sessions, managed administrative and fundraising tasks for NGOs, and led community campaigns on education, environmental protection, and sports. My goal is to leverage my skills for transformational projects, helping NGOs scale their mission, streamline operations, and empower communities—while also personally enriching myself by learning from the diversity of people I serve.
