

Deepa Raghavan

Strategic content curator | Public Policy advocate | Journalist | International relations
Delhi, India

PH: +44 7587754718 | email: deeparaghavan01work@gmail.com

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/deepa-raghavan>

Summary:

Proactive, research-oriented International Relations postgraduate with hands-on experience in gender-based advocacy, public policy, digital media, and community engagement. Demonstrates a deep-rooted passion for supporting ethnically diverse women and survivors of domestic violence, with practical expertise in writing impact reports, identifying grant funding, developing inclusive policies, and managing cross-platform content. Proven success working with non-profits and grassroots organisations to amplify marginalised voices and deliver measurable social impact.

Skills

Sustainability research, policy writing, content and academic research materials, Advocacy and stakeholder engagement, data and infographic design, Canva, Photoshop, strategic communication, teamwork, leadership

Education and Certification

University of Leeds- MA. in International Relations (Predicted grade- Merit) Sept 2024-2025

Modules—Historical International Relations | Euro-Defence, Contemporary International Relations | The Responsibility to Protect.

Amity University, Noida—Bachelor's in English Literature (Distinction), Sept 2021-June 2024

Modules—Postcolonial Literature, 19th-century literature, contemporary Literature

Professional Experience

Essentials- Volunteer

April 2025- Present

- Designed posters for the shop and volunteered for 32 hours in the store.
- Communicated to the customers and created awareness in people about charity and giving.
- Worked in a team consisting of 7 volunteers and coordinated with them for the stock arrangement and retail.

BloodConnect India Foundation—HR Intern

May 2025-Present

- Designed internal and external presentations on Canva to support donor outreach and volunteer engagement.
- Wrote compelling content for donation drives and social campaigns, highlighting the impact of blood donations.
- Collaborated with HR and outreach teams to streamline communication materials for stakeholders.

BreatheBlue India Foundation—SEO Content Intern, Delhi, India,

Nov 2024-July 2025,

- Researched articles on sustainability, inclusivity, and activism—ranging from Amazon fires to sustainable living.
- Managed the ideation and contributed to social media strategies aligned with UN SDG goals, hence bringing an impact through content and extensive research.
- An academic research article based on microplastics,

Medium- Freelance Journalist,

Nov 2024- Present

- Working as a freelance journalist at Medium and posting articles on climate change, women's empowerment, international news, and public policy.
- Built a personal readership through well-researched, narrative journalism.
- Built a platform curating mainstream news and blogs.

Inter University Centre IUC Dubrovnik- Student & Alumni,

15th May 2025- 18th May 2025

- Attended a summer school held in Dubrovnik, Croatia, on Atrocity Crimes Prevention and Human Rights, among 50 other selected students in online participation.
- Openly participated in debates around R2P and atrocity crime prevention, completed extensive research on the topic to speak up in class and participated.
- A member of the alumni group from the summer school.

EmpowerHer- Writer,

August 2024- December 2024

- Conducted independent research on gender issues, policy reforms, and women-led initiatives to inform content direction.
- Collaborated with editors to align articles with the platform's mission and audience engagement strategies.
- Contributed to the August 2024 cohort's thematic campaign, amplifying stories of resilience and leadership among women in under-represented communities.

Youth Odisha- Engagement Intern,

June 2024- September 2024

- Coordinated between leadership and teams to support daily operations.
- Assisted in organising meetings with the President and the HR head.
- Managed intern communications and helped resolve internal issues.

Writistic Studios- Research Head,

August 2023- December 2023

- Managed a team of 10, with successful collaborations with other teams, and researched market trends in business.
- Conducted successful events and research for Writistic's first anniversary, which was a massive success.
- Held research in the entertainment business and also about media and communications.

Girl Up Aayat (UN initiative)—Co-founder and Head of Events,

December 2022-January 2024

- Established and managed a Girl Up in Jamshedpur, Jharkhand, and worked towards women's empowerment, mental health, and gender inequality.
- Successfully collaborated with other Girl Up organisations and NGOs to conduct events and webinars for the society, both online and in person.
- Designed the logo for the club and implemented successful strategies to promote inclusivity and equality.

INPAC Times- Journalism Intern,

October 2023- November 2023

- Worked as a journalist intern with the team and curated well-researched articles on global politics, finance, entrepreneurship, and entertainment, successfully publishing 23 articles on the website.
- Researched mainstream news regarding the Ukraine war and the Gaza war.
-

The Lantern Tribe- Writer,

September 2022- August 2023

- Voiced concerns through effective articles on body dysphoria, child marriage, female infanticide, orgasms and pleasure, and women and disability.
- Also participated in the States Series launch by them, where I successfully researched the issues in Jharkhand and Karnataka.
- Researched on advocacy for disability rights and issues on mental wellbeing and

Research Work-

Magical Realism is an important theme in Kafka on the Shore.

Post-colonialism in A Passage to India by E.M. Forster and Half a Yellow Sun by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

Terrorism and R2P-MA. Dissertation.