PERSONAL STATEMENT:

I am a first-year law student with a strong interest in exploring the diverse fields of law, including both litigation and corporate practice. As I begin my legal journey, my goal is to gain practical exposure and understand where my true interests lie. I am eager to learn new skills, take on challenges, and work efficiently in a professional environment. With an open mind and commitment to growth, I aim to contribute meaningfully while developing a solid foundation for my future legal career.

Keen to learn, contribute, and gain experience through internships and research opportunities.
