

Theme – Education and protection

Title of the story – Awareness of nisha kumari saved her from child labour and child marriage

Name of the child – Nisha kumari

Age – 15 years

Gender – female

Father name – shri nathuni mehta

Mother name – Bagmati devi

Village- Gram naurangiya dan, west champaran, bihar

Organisation – deep organization and cry organization

Community – weaker section

Place – west chamaparan, Bihar

- Access to family -Her father was a orphan he was not able to walk and do any work to secure nisha's education. Her family were not able to give her proper food also. They have no one in their family who can work. So, nisha was forced to work as a labourer at a young age.

- Problems – she was good in studying. She belongs to a poor family. Due to her poor condition she was not able to get her education. Nisha was forced to work as a child labourer in a early age. Her father and mother did not liked it, they wanted to get her married but child marriage is a crime.

- project intervention – she wants to get more education without any difficulties. She want to live her dreams like other girls but unable to do it. With the help of cry and deep organization she gets help to pursue education and achieve her goals. She also got good number in her class 10 results. And she gets freedom from child marriage and child labour.

- overall impact of the project - Financial difficulties threatened her education and with the help and support of deep organization to continue her studies, it worked as a positive impact in nisha's life and her parents agreed to continue her education. Today nisha is a confident student who broke the cycle of poverty. As nisha continues her educational journey she remains committed to her goals with sacrifices of her parents and support of deep organization which was a part of cry community based organization.