

Internship Report by Diya Agarwal

Child Rights and You (CRY) | May 2025 – June 2025

Introduction

During my internship with Child Rights and You (CRY) from May 2025 to June 2025, I focused on compiling data and creating the Talbros Impact Report FY 24-25 for projects in Satna and Betul districts. Additionally, I supported an online fundraiser to empower children through education.

Key Responsibilities

- Collected and organized data for the Talbros Impact Report, covering child health, nutrition, education, and protection initiatives in the Anandi Lal Project (Satna) and Shikha Bhaurse Project (Betul).
- Authored a comprehensive impact report summarizing key metrics, achievements, and challenges across multiple villages.
- Promoted CRYs Pathways to Promise fundraiser via Ketto to support educational programs for underprivileged children.

Achievements

- Successfully compiled data from 9 villages in Satna and 5 villages in Betul, producing a detailed 9-page Talbros Impact Report FY 24-25.
- Structured report sections on health camps, child protection, and community mobilization, ensuring clarity and accuracy for stakeholders.
- Contributed to fundraising efforts, targeting 3,000 through the Ketto platform to support CRYs educational initiatives.

Skills Gained

- Data Compilation: Developed proficiency in aggregating and organizing complex datasets on child rights and health metrics.
- Report Writing: Enhanced skills in creating clear, professional reports for nonprofit stakeholders.
- Fundraising: Gained experience in promoting and managing online fundraising campaigns using Ketto.

Conclusion

My internship with CRY strengthened my ability to compile data and create impactful reports while contributing to child rights initiatives. I am grateful for the opportunity to support CRYs mission and will apply these skills in future data-driven and social impact roles
