About the Organization

Child Rights and You (CRY) is a leading Indian non-governmental organization that focuses on child rights and child well-being. The organization, founded in 1979 by Rippan Kapur, has shifted from delivering welfare relief to a rights-based model of addressing the systemic problems impacting children.

CRY's Mission and Impact

The mission of CRY signifies a world where every child is happy, healthy, and educated. CRY works in four key areas:

- Education: Ensuring access to quality education for children
- Health & Nutrition: Addressing malnutrition and promoting health
- Safety & Protection: Combating child labor, child marriage, and trafficking
- Child Participation: Enabling children to raise their concerns about decision-making and to participate in decisions affecting them

Working with 102+ local NGOs, across 19 states CRY has mobilized and improved the lives of 4.7 million children.

Collaboration with Nav Srishti

CRY has collaborated with Various NGO's including Nav Srishti. Nav Srishti is a reputable NGO in New Delhi that supports marginalized people, especially women and children. Founded in 1994, Nav Srishti engages issues at the grassroots level while also striving for policy changes at the systemic level. The organization has provided services to over 60,000 people through various programs, which have created self-sufficiency and civic engagement with almost all beneficiaries.

1. Saksham(Vocational Training)-Nav Srishti provides free, market-led vocational and entrepreneurial training for youth and has a goal of empowering girls in particular.

2. Creche Programme for Children -Through the early childhood development program, Nav Srishti provides nutritious meals, health check-ups, and stimulating activities.

3. Mahila Panchayat-Women's Empowerment Nav Srishti has established Mahila Panchayats, or women's councils, in collaboration with Delhi Commission for Women in Nangloi, Holambi Kalan, and Bharola that act as community-based councils where women can interact with one another to receive legal education and support for resolution of disputes, while also supporting women who are subjected to violence and discrimination.

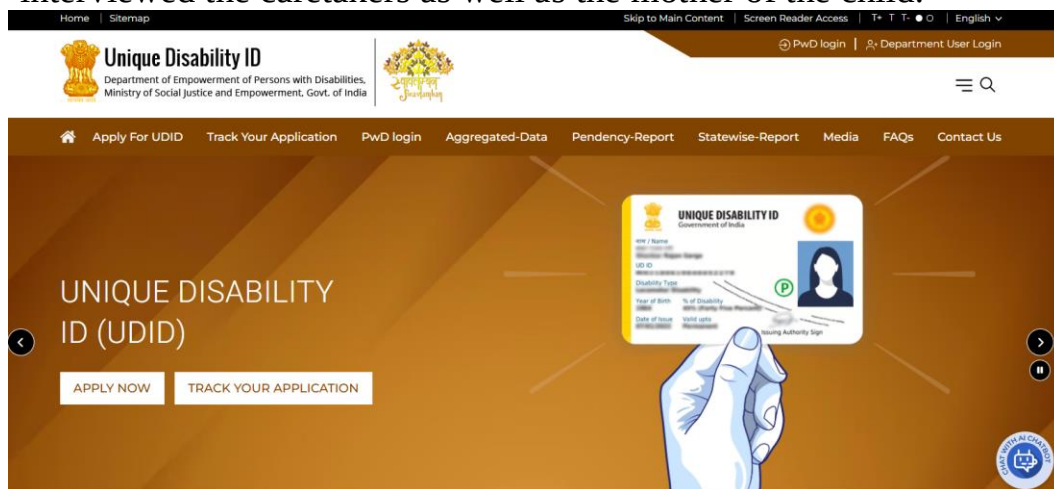

4. Promoting Self-help groups Working with NABARD, Nav Srishti is promoting women self-help groups in rural areas of Faridabad. The goal of the initiative is to build economic and social empowerment of rural women and engage them in decision-making.

Partnership with CRY

Nav Srishti collaborates with Child Rights and You (CRY), aligning with their mission to promote children's rights and well-being. Through this partnership, Nav Srishti extends its reach and impact, particularly in areas like child protection, education, and health.

DAY 1(20TH MAY)

- I was instructed to apply to the government website of UDID to get a unique disability ID for a child with hearing and speech impairment whose parents weren't aware on the procedure to do the same.
- The ID has been successfully created and now the child can get her treatment done in a hospital.
- I also made an Email Id for the father of the child since important messages were to be sent on mail by the government.
- I was asked to make a success story of Roohi who lives in a single mother household and had been enrolled in the Creche Program of Nav Srishti so I interviewed the caretakers as well as the mother of the child.

DAY 2(21ST MAY)

- Visited Roohi's home to look at the place they were living as well as meet the mother and talk to her more about her daily activities.
- Made the success story of Another Child Rajiv who has been in Nav Srishti's Creche Program since last 6 months. His mother couldn't go to work earlier because she had to take care of Rajiv but ever since Rajiv has been Enrolled in the Creche Program his mother is able to work.
- I engaged children in Vegetable Painting activity which aimed at improving team work instincts.
- Taught Children of class 1st to 8th the subjects English and Mathematics as summer camp learning.
- Nav Srishti has a program called "UMEED" which discusses the day to day problems faced by Adolescent girls. I was lucky enough to be a part of the monthly meeting.
- I Conducted a debate on the topic "Is cooking necessary to learn" after the meeting with adolescent girls.

DAY 3 (22ND MAY)

- Nav Srishti has a initiative called “Sahkar Setu” that helps to promote women Employment .With the help of this initiative women learn how to sew and many of them are able to become independent as well as finding their passion in the same.
- I was asked to make the success story of Neetu who had come to Nav Srishti to learn how to sew as well as become independent because she was always treated inferior since she was a housewife .After learning how to sew within 6 months she received a certificate from Nav Srishti and started her own Business.
- I also made a Template for the same so that it is easier to post on social media.
- Taught students simple Yoga Meditation and Asana’s.
- I taught students of classes 1st to 8th Hindi and Science using Practical Examples.

THREADS OF CHANGE: NEETU'S JOURNEY WITH NAV SRISHTI

In the narrow lanes of a bustling neighbourhood, where aspirations often fade, a quiet revolution is being stitched—one thread at a time. Meet Neetu, a resilient woman who once grappled with limited opportunities, but is now the proud architect of her own entrepreneurial journey.

Enrolling in the six-month certificate programme in stitching and embroidery at Nav Srishti, Neetu found confidence, clarity, and a community. Today, she runs her own home-based boutique, designing blouses, lehengas, and traditional attire.

NAV SRISHTI isn't just creating entrepreneurs –It's nurturing dignity, independence, and leadership in every woman it touches.

DAY 4 (23RD MAY)

- Friday is “Funday” at Nav Srishti for Children so at first I taught the children actions of easy poems so that a proper video could be recorded and posted at the social media accounts of Nav Srishti. I helped in the Social Media Content as well as promotion of Nav Srishti
- I made the students play an Easy Game of “Up and Down” to enhance their attention Span. The game involved everyone to stand up as I said “ Up” and Sit down as I said “Down”. If the child did reverse actions they would be out and the last one standing would receive a chocolate.
- Nav Srishti conducts counselling sessions for families and resolve their cases.I helped in forming the Family Counselling Data Base of Nav Srishti.
- I taught kids to make an Origami Flower and they all enjoyed it a lot.Many of them told me that they gave it to their parents and were extremely happy.

DAY 5 (26th MAY)

- I organized engaging Storytelling and Poem Recitation Activities to enhance Learning, Speaking and Imaginative skills in Children.
- I also told them age appropriate stories and poems in both English and Hindi with themes around values and kindness.
- Encouraged students to narrate and recite to boost their confidence and communication skills
- I also assisted in Covering Labelling and Laminating Registers and important files to maintain proper records.
- Categorized files related to family counselling data, attendance and activity sheets, Movement Register etc.

Key Learnings and Takeaways

DAY 1

- LEARNINGS:- Many families are unaware of processes like obtaining a Unique Disability ID (UDID), which is crucial for obtaining adequate healthcare and benefits, there can be a digital divide if people are not familiar with technology(such as the father who did not have an email ID.)
- TAKEAWAYS:-Guidance can significantly enhance the child's access to essential services. Facilitating Basic digital skills helps the family to be well connected and informed.

DAY 2

- LEARNINGS:- Enrollment of children like Rajiv and Roohi in the crèche program allows mothers to pursue employment opportunities and help their families standard of living to grow.Engaging children in activities like vegetable painting fosters creativity and teamwork. It is extremely important to have monthly meetings with adolescent girls as they will feel comfortable in sharing their problems as well as encourage older girls to continue their studies.
- TAKEAWAYS: - Accessible childcare services provide an essential service in increasing women's participation within jobs of different types. Incorporating art and other activities in education enhances the cognitive and social skills of children. Providing safe spaces for adolescents opens up opportunities for individuals to communicate freely and enhance their personal lives..

DAY 3

- LEARNINGS: Programs like Sahkar Setu provide women vocational skills such as tailoring, which provides a means to financial independence; Conducting yoga sessions allowed children to experience a form of exercise that would also support and aid in flexibility, focus, and regulation of emotion.
- TAKEAWAYS: Skills development programs can change perceptions of women in a community to develop trust, confidence, and economic success; Introduction of yoga into children's lives promotes physical well being, resilience and minds know how to be mindful.

DAY 4

- LEARNINGS:-Instead of just studying there was a need of holistic development to enhance the attention span of children,Creating content on social media can amplify the reach of our message.Database Management is very crucial.
- TAKEAWAYS:-Social media a one stop solution for marketing and promotion,Maintaining organized records of counselling sessions ensures continuity of care and helps in monitoring progress over time.

DAY 5

- LEARNINGS:-Assisting in tasks like labeling, laminating, and data categorization improves record-keeping and operational workflows. Motivated students to narrate stories and recite poems, fostering confidence and improving communication skills.
- TAKEAWAYS:- This imaginative process of storytelling encourages creative thinking and problem-solving skills, Efficient administrative practices are essential for the smooth functioning of community programs.
